

Introducing the Canopy restaurant above Penn Central

A really romantic setting

CHEF DE PARTIE: Lewis Arnold

FOLLOWING yesterday's highly successful opening night, the Canopy Restaurant above Penn Central is ready to welcome you in for some fine dining.

The Canopy Restaurant is set in a listed building above Penn Central in the salubrious suburb of Penn Hill and serves high quality cuisine.

Guests at the opening night were entertained by the Riccardi Brothers and a Tommy Cooper themed live act, throughout a successful evening.

Ben Manners took over the Canopy Restaurant and Penn Central three months ago with his business partner Mike Hicks. He has always lived in Dorset and has been a local chef for 12 years, working in some of the best restaurants in the area.

"We have aspirations of achieving as many rosettes as possible for fine dining," said Ben.

"We specialise in seafood and our menus are seasonal, with delightful daily specials and a wide range of meals, all prepared with produce from local farms and fishermen."

Ben and Mike have taken on a new manager, Miho Kralj, formerly manager at two-rosette restaurant St Michel's.

"The dining area is an intimate and really romantic setting, especially when the lights are dimmed, it feels like you could be anywhere in the Mediterranean," said Miho of his new workplace.

To accompany the great food at The Canopy Restaurant there is live music every Sunday and regular weekend events held downstairs at Penn Central, where food is served until 7pm everyday.

Monday to Saturday there is a set lunch menu at The Canopy, which has all the quality food of the a la carte menu and is available at two courses for £10 and three courses for £12.95.

The set menu is also available in the evenings between Monday and Thursday along with a Two for One offer on cocktails.

The monthly hog roasts always prove to be popular, accompanied by live music, it's a great way to spend a winter's evening.

"People love coming to the hog roasts on the winter nights to listen to some great music and enjoy some delightful tasty food," said Ben.

The Canopy Restaurant is available for party and wedding bookings and can cater for other occasions on request. For more information or to make a reservation call 01202 710888.
